24 - RETURN / THE TURNING POINT

... in returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength ... (Isaiah 30:15). If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up ... (Job 22:23). This means, as you align yourself with the Infinite Presence within you, this Power becomes active and potent in your life. In this inner communion with the Divine, you feel the strength, guidance and love of His Presence. Under this spiritual influence, it is to your advantage to undertake a new venture, and whatever you decide on will prosper.

The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world ... (Psalms 77:18). This means the heavens of your own mind, where you feel the inspiration of the Infinite and you are stirred up and lifted up spiritually. The lightning refers to the inner light or illumination of your of your intellect by the wisdom of God. This is an excellent time for you to become still and quiet and listen, as Emerson said, “to the whisperings of the gods.”

4th Line Changing:

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God ... (Luke 2:20). Your mind needs a shepherd. Continue to watch over your thoughts, attitudes and feelings and walk in the consciousness of God’s love, and you will automatically express as well as experience good fortune.

51 - THE AROUSING / SHOCK / THUNDER

... And the Lord sent thunder and rain that day ... (I Samuel 12:18). Thunder creates a lot of noise and sometimes gives you a sudden shock, but it is followed by rain ... Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you ... (Exodus 16:4). You are Divinely guided, and blessings follow.

.... And I heard as it were the noise of thunder .... (Revelation 6:1). The “noise of thunder”, psychologically and spiritually speaking, means the inner movement of the Spirit in you, announcing a new birth and a new beginning, whereby you will move from the unconditioned to the conditioned state. Be persistent in knowing that Divine law and order govern your life.

24 - RETURNING

You are RETURNING to the beginning of yet another cycle in your life, after what may have seemed a long period of stagnation or frustration. Progress had been halted at every turn, and movement appeared impossible. Now the paths leading to renewed growth are revealing themselves. Although you may be quite anxious to proceed with your plans, you must keep in mind that things are just at their beginnings. Don't push. The improving situation will continue to develop at its own pace. This promising turn for the better is certain, and as natural as the change from a still, cold winter to the early anticipation of spring. And, like the seasons, the cycles in life cannot be hastened. Conserve your energies instead. You'll need them to cope with the inevitable complexities that arise with new phases. The RETURNING situation will establish itself of its own accord. Contemplate and adjust your relationship to this new phase in order to afford yourself a comfortable position within it.

This is a time when groups of like-minded individuals can come together and work toward a common goal. Success is indicated here because the progress of these individuals is unhampered, both in the external world and their innermost motivations.

You may be experiencing a dormant period in your social life, or perhaps an illness that has held you back. This situation suggests a return to better times, but cautions as well against overly vigorous movement. Just because you feel better now, do not immediately throw yourself into an energetic undertaking or attempt to be the center of the social event of the season. Remember, you must strengthen the beginning with rest.

The time of RETURNING can also indicate a new beginning through a fresh approach to important relationships. If such is the case, treat this time very carefully. You must now be aware of what to expect from relationships that do not start out on the proper footing. Above all, this footing must be relevant to your nature. If you are still uncertain about this, this current phase is an ideal opportunity for self-knowledge. At the time of RETURNING to new beginnings is the implied END of an old cycle. Study the phase you are now exiting. It is a cycle. It had a beginning and you are experiencing its end. The reasons for certain things that may have been unacceptable or confusing to you are now apparent. The contemplation of the return of these cycles can lead to profound inner knowledge. The Chinese refer to this hexagram as the apparent pattern of the intelligence of Heaven and Earth.

4th Line Changing:

Your Current milieu is inferior. You have become aware of the possibility of a change for the better and wish to move in that direction. Be aware that your friends may not follow you. Your path could be a solitary one.

CHANGING TO ... NEAR FUTURE:

51 - SHOCKING

The sudden force of stored and kinetic energy in the cosmos will be released in a powerful and SHOCKING display. Like the awesome clap of a thunderbolt that explodes in the hushed moments before a storm, it will instill in the hearts of all who hear it an intense reverence and awareness of the overwhelming power of nature. All things in the cosmos will be aroused to movement through fear. This movement will be cautious, and cautious movement will bring success.

The time is like spring, when new growth is aroused by the forces of nature. In human affairs it can manifest as a SHOCKING turn of events, an unpredictable, cataclysmic occurrence inspired by invisible but irresistible forces. If your first reaction to this is fear and reverence, then good fortune will follow. A heightened experience of the forces that affect your life will bring you into close contact with the inner workings of your nature. You can examine your reactions and thereby determine how best to strengthen your character.

Once the SHOCKING event has passed, like the thunderbolt before the storm, the taut readiness of your awareness and caution will be released in joy. Surviving this terrifying force will give you confidence in your ability to deal with all that follows. If you can learn to react with virtuous accord and maintain your composure, success is truly yours. This composure and inner strength are the marks of true leaders, persons who can greatly benefit society. During times of shock you will have the opportunity to make new gains in social influence by handling yourself with tranquility and poise.

This is a good time to examine your relationship to all of your external affairs. Carry on with whatever you are engaged in but be certain that you have most of the elements of your life under control. Affairs that are pending and unfinished business will cause difficulties during SHOCKING times. Yet if these times inspire you to make innovative changes in your life, in your relationships and in your Self, you will meet with vitality and success.
