Wisdom ~ 5 ~ MAJOR ARCANA (The Hierophant)

When the student is ready the teacher will appear. This card illustrates that there's a spiritual teacher who's about to influence you or step into your life to impart their wisdom. Look around to see if there's someone in your life who has the wisdom, education, knowledge, and ability to integrate spirituality and its laws into the constraints of the physical world? This could be a compassionate person who offers guidance, inspiration, and reminds you that you are so much more than a physical being – you are also a spiritual being with unlimited potential.

You also may have also drawn this card to confirm that it's time to reach out and find an organization or group of like-minded kindred souls. Groups of people where you can be yourself, share your thoughts, and get valuable feedback can infuse you and encourage you to be all that you can be. Kindred support helps us to live our lives to our highest ideals, and help us find the true inspiration and enlightenment that is part of our souls. Over time, the student often becomes the teacher, so don't be surprised when others seek out and find you. This card of wisdom is letting you know that you have so much to share – whether you realize it or not.

Transformation ~ 13 ~ MAJOR ARCANA (Death)

A time of endings is close at hand. Don't resist the sudden changes that are suddenly happening in your life. These could be taking place in your personal life, relationships, business, or career. You have the strength, as the Transformation Card asks you to have courage and know that renewal follows every ending.

This card comes forth to remind you that the death of an old way of thinking and believing must happen before you can move forwards on your new path. Transformation is all about the ebb and flow of life cycles. Nothing in this life remains motionless. Everything is on its way to somewhere. Accept the changes and opportunity will come you way to stretch yourself more than you could have ever imagined!

You cannot live in the past – it's time to move on.. In order to take the next positive step, you should look closely at your own life, and ask; Are there loose ends that need to be tied up? Are there people in your life you need to express yourself to? What needs to be completed so you can have a fresh start? When you do this, you'll have a stronger, reinforced foundation to carry you through the new beginnings that await you.

Emotional Loss* ~ 5 ~ EMOTIONS

The 5 Emotion Card comes forth at a time when you may be experiencing or grieving a loss of someone or something you were emotionally attached to. Honor your feelings. Only by healing and loving yourself, by letting go of the past, can you continue your journey.

The pain attached to loss delivers profound wisdom and knowledge for your soul. Your unique gifts, talents, and abilities as well as your joys and pain will make up who you really are, but better yet – who you'll become. The painful experiences of life are equally as valuable as the joyous ones. Focus all your positive energy on the good in your life and what you're grateful for. Use your healing energy in this way and try not to focus on what you have lost, for new beginnings and joy are just around the corner.

What is to be GAINED? ~
Emotional Withdrawal* ~ 8 ~ EMOTIONS

This card represents moving away or withdrawing from a current situation in your life, whether it's an old love, a relationship, or leaving behind what was once familiar in search of new horizons (or beginnings). On a physical level, it's easy to get caught up in the materialistic world, but it's just as important to retreat from the outside world to enable you to pause, reflect, and heal. Schedule some alone time, so you can commune with your soul and give the power of spirit both the time and opportunity to restore your energy level, giving you the vitality to move forwards in a positive direction.

The number eight represents infinity, passion, control and power. This is your time. Use this opportunity to tap into your heart and soul, to help find the courage and strength to continue your journey into that wonderful undiscovered territory.

Fertility* ~ 3 ~ MAJOR ARCANA (The Empress)

Through this card, the manifestation of growth is on the horizon. You are the creator and the seeds that have been planted in the past, whether they were happiness, comfort, abundance, prosperity, family, children, ideas, or even thoughts, are now ready to give birth into our world. Be patient as you watch your seeds take root and grow. Nurture them as they become strong and healthy.

Open yourself to the life force of the Universe. This card also represents femininity and Mother Earth. She is calling to you. The arms of her beauty are reaching out and she wants to embrace you on her seashores, mountains, forests and gardens – go to her and meet her half-way. Acknowledge that the same energy that makes up the heavens, earth, plants, animals, as well as the mineral kingdom is also part of you.

Start nurturing yourself and infuse your soul with love and compassion. Soon others will see and feel your devotion. As you interact with people around you now, or even if you're in the midst of solving a problem, use gentle care and kindness as you handle such situations. This is not a time for you to be inconsiderate, possessive, domineering, forceful, or pushy. Act from the loving space of your heart center. Partnerships & Alliances ~ 3 ~ SPIRIT

The meaning of this card denotes that you're now starting to see the fruits of your labor take seed and blossom. There may still be a lot to do, but watch out for synchronicities, which could bring opportunities to form new partnerships or unexpected alliances to start something new. With all partnerships, always remember that there has to be an even exchange of energy. If you give too much whereas the partner gives too little, it could leave you feeling energetically drained and cause potential disharmony in the group. There has to be overall balance within the alliance for it to work and blend together for optimum future results. This card reminds you that success comes in many forms, even from the most unlikely sources. Have an open mind when listening to others.
